

John A. Bush III
Senior Vice President
Global Security
CA, Inc.

John A. Bush III has been with CA for over 11 years and holds the position of Senior Vice President of Global Security. John supervises all strategic corporate security and safety programs. His primary critical functions are for the safety of all CA employees, the protection of company assets, due diligence and instituting emergency plans. John is also a member of CA's Senior Leadership Team and author's company policy which includes procedures for strategic global challenges.

Prior to joining CA, John had a 23 year career with the U.S. Secret Service where he retired as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the New York Field Office. Duties varied between supervision of criminal, intelligence and protective operations. He was assigned to the Presidential Protection Detail (PPD) for approximately 5 years.

John is a graduate of CW Post College where he achieved a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry and Masters of Professional Studies in Criminal Justice.