

SECURITY OFFICER OF THE YEAR – Criteria

In conjunction with our Annual Person of the Year Dinner, nominations are invited for our first Security Officer of the Year Award.

This annual award will be introduced by ASIS Long Island in 2010 to improve the image and self esteem of security officers by recognizing outstanding achievements and professionalism in performing above and beyond the call of duty.

It is not necessary for nominees to be an ASIS member.

Conditions:

The nominated security officer, contracted or proprietary, must have performed an act(s) of merit leading to the saving of life, property, information, etc or leading to the arrest or apprehension of a perpetrator of a crime while on duty.

The act(s) should have taken place between Jan 1 and Dec 31 in the year prior to the awards evening.

Note: The nominee must have been assigned to a site in Nassau and Suffolk Counties, and the act(s) must have occurred at this location. In addition the nominee must be the holder of a current New York State Security Guard License.

Marketability:

The successful employing company will be able to advertise that their personnel won that year ASIS Security Officer of the Year Award.

Nominations:Must include the following:

- Titled “ Security Officer of the Year Nomination”
- Name of company
- Full name and age of nominee
- New York State Security Guard License #
- Length of service
- All relevant details pertaining to the incident(s)
- Signature and designation of the person making the nomination

Selection:

The Security Officer of the Year Award will be selected by an independent panel determined by the ASIS Long Island Executive Board.

The panel’s decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Award:

The award recipient will be presented the Security Officer of the Year award at the Long Island Chapter’s Person of the Year Dinner and will receive a complimentary one year associate membership with ASIS International, and be assigned to the Long Island Chapter

Deadline:

All award nominations must be postmarked by April 1, 2010

You may submit nominees by mail to the address below:

ASIS Long Island

3280 Sunrise Highway #306

Wantagh, NY 11793

Attention: Security Officer of the Year