

KEITH ORINGER ASIS NYC SCHOLARSHIP

Keith was a respected leader in the security industry, with more than 30 years of experience that left a lasting impact on countless companies and individuals.

After starting his career in accounting with KPMG, Keith earned a CPA, then began his distinguished security industry career in 1991; first at Wells Fargo Guard Services, and then at U.S. Security Associates from 1993 to 2014, as a shareholder and where he rose to president of the New York Metro and Aviation business units. From its early days, Keith played a central role in the company's explosive growth, helping lead it to $1.2 billion in annual revenue before it was acquired by Goldman Sachs and later Allied Universal.

Keith founded Security ProAdvisors in 2015, where he combined his operational expertise and financial acumen to help security companies enhance profitability and achieve greater valuation. In 2024, he co-authored Legends of the Security Services Industry: Profiles in Leadership, a testament to his dedication to honoring the pioneers of the field he loved so deeply.

Keith's legacy is defined by leadership, integrity, innovation, and a lifelong commitment to excellence. He will be deeply missed by his colleagues, friends, and the industry he helped shape.

SCHOLARSHIP PURPOSE

The Keith Oringer Leadership Award is presented annually to a graduating high-school, or current college student who exemplifies the core values of empathy, integrity, compassion, and leadership. This prestigious award honors students who have demonstrated a commitment to positively impacting their communities through thoughtful, principled action and a genuine desire to help others. Open to sons and daughters of ASIS members, the award recognizes those who, like Keith Oringer, lead by example and inspire others with their unwavering dedication to making the world a better place.

WHO SHOULD APPLY

This award is open to family members of registered ASIS members who are graduating high school seniors or current college students.

LEADERSHIP

This student consistently demonstrates strong leadership by actively contributing to school activities and taking initiative in organizing and participating in events that benefit both the school and the wider community. Their involvement in charity organizations outside of school further highlights their commitment to service, teamwork, and making a meaningful impact. Through their actions, they inspire peers, foster collaboration, and exemplify the values of responsibility and civic engagement.

INTEGRITY

This student consistently demonstrates integrity by upholding strong moral principles and doing what is right, even when no one is watching. They are honest, dependable, and take accountability for their actions. Whether in the classroom, during extracurricular activities, or in their interactions with peers and staff, they model fairness, respect, and ethical behavior. Their character earns the trust of others and sets a positive example for the school community.

INNOVATION

This student demonstrates creativity and forward thinking by approaching challenges with fresh ideas and a problem-solving mindset. Whether in academics, school projects, or extracurricular activities, they show a willingness to take initiative, think outside the box, and explore new solutions. Their curiosity and enthusiasm for learning drive them to improve existing processes and inspire others to embrace change and innovation.
